Hello!

I'm with SQA Services, we are a third-party quality assurance consulting firm, and we are hoping you can help us with an employment opportunity we have available.

We are currently looking for a Senior QA Manager for a growing pharmaceutical company in VA. This opportunity can start immediately and will offer both remote and onsite work options. Would you be able to share this with your local network or let us know how to get the opportunity posted on your website?

Thanks in advance and looking forward to hearing from you!
